Call to Order

President Kristi Fogleman called the meeting to order at 1:03 pm.

Minutes

Kristi made motion to approve the April minutes. Lauren seconded the motion. Motion passes.

Treasurer's Report

Lauren is waiting for taxes to be finished. An extension has been filed. There is $150,000 in the TXAPCO checking acct. The TXPSC finances have not been closed out yet. The conference center check still needs to be cut. The silent auction made $3915. The Kendra Scott table made $333.27. Each of those totals will be halved by TXAPCO and TXNENA. There has been nothing further from Regina Cochran.

New business

TXPSC 2026 Denton – The decorator, TX Expo sent an estimate that was really high because they felt like they didn't make enough money in McAllen. They want us to sign a 2-year agreement for 2026 and 2027.

Website Committee - Sofia sent message about having a website committee in addition to publicity committee.

Sponsorships: Kristi will find out.

Joint meeting dates - Kristi sent a save the date. June 18th. They will be virtual. TXAPCO has a meeting the Thursday before. Committee meetings will also be virtual. They will be after the joint board meeting.

Walk through dates – TXNENA would like to do walk throughs late summer or early fall instead of January.

APCO INTL Booth - We need a schedule. We need solid idea. Frito Lay is a TX company as well as Dr Pepper.

TX Night Out - Deposits have been made for the venue and the caterer. Registration is ready on our website. Cap is 90 ppl.

Fall symposium - Kristi has courtesy blocks at 2 hotels. The Embassy Suites require a $500 deposit. They will give it back after the symposium.

Website - We are month to month with Star Chapter. Kristi will set up a demo with Wix. Lauren advised we passed our vulnerability test.

Totes of Love - Kelle Hall with TXNENA brought up joining TXAPCO and TXNENA for the Totes of Love program. Board members discussed and ultimately decided against that.
