Spring conference- Shantelle confirmed hotel dates for the February walkthrough and meeting. She will send out menu selections via email.

New business

Fall Symposium- The board discussed whether or not to continue holding the fall symposium. Due to problematic attendance and overall cost, the board agreed to discontinue with the symposium. The bylaws state a business meeting must be held twice a year. A meeting has been held during the fall symposium. The board discussed having other types of training in the fall including Let's Dish and leadership training. A formal business meeting can be held during that time as well. Roderick made a motion for TXAPCO to no longer hold the fall training symposium with plans to continue holding a business meeting in the fall. Tamara seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Committee Reports

Communications: Mandi reported the communications committee will be focusing on sharing conference related content the next few months. An awards committee has been formed with Kea Lampkin chairing the committee. Nominations will be accepted until Jan 26th, and the committee will select the winners. The training committee has continued to send content to be shared reference training.

Training: Ayanna reported the committee has developed their first YouTube video. The will focus on TCPR will touch on next.

Legislation: Greg has reached out to Jeremy to get an update on what he had been working on. Greg remembered during his previous tenure on the board, TXAPCO and TXNENA were interested in forming a joint committee for legislation. He will look into that possibility. Greg will go to 911 goes to Washington.

Executive Council: Greg has not had an EC meeting yet. He will be responsible for the VIP meeting/meal at the spring conference.

Historical: Roderick is waiting on a response from Heather on receiving the documents she has. He will move forward and reach back out to the APCO historical store. Reference the spring 2025 conference, he is waiting on McAllen to sign the RFP.

MOD Squad: Mandi will reach out to Ft Worth PD to see about deploying a tote to them due to a large hotel explosion.
