Treasurer's Report

No update. No more money has come in from Regina. Need to cut a check to Greg and have figure out how much came in from the Fall Symposium from our bank account. Will need to take that money and cut it back over to the conference. Lauren needs everyone to send their APCO member number and PID number today or tomorrow, so she can register us all for the conference. Shawn will not be attending the fall symposium.

Old Business

- I. National Conference Review – We should have had a Texas meeting. We were late to preparing for the future city table. Next year, Pam can assist with the future city table because she lives in San Antonio. The Baltimore table had brochures and give a-ways and local candy. Pam will be happy to meet civic organizations from San Antonio to get items. We should all sign up to work the booth before we go to conference. Other chapters had their Night Out on Sunday and other days than Saturday. Our attendance was low on the Saturday night. Sunday would be more popular and serve our members and vendors better. The venues would cost less on a Sunday night. Shawn spoke with CCAMs from other chapters. They've expanded their CCAMs into a committee. Shawn will put something formal together to present at the next meeting.

New Business

- II. Fall Symposium – There are 66 people registered. We got a donation for dinner Monday night by Chicken Express. Tuesday we will have Jason's Deli. The sponsorships are paid up. We are not paying out of pocket for anything. One of the big prizes for bingo is possibly a membership for APCO or NENA or a registration for the spring conference. It would not come out of our pockets because there is money in the symposium budget. Registration through Cvent is going smooth.
- III. Staffing Summit – Not all board members are attending.
- IV. Totes of Love – Alena has been trying to work with Ft Worth to deliver a tote to them. She has had communication issues. Dallas PD had an officer ambushed sitting in his car and two other officers injured. A Houston constable
